Paths for All are excited to be running our Volunteer Awards again this year. It's a great chance to acknowledge the work of volunteers and say thank you for their time, commitment and enthusiasm.

Please nominate your volunteers and Volunteer Manager, to let them know how much they are appreciated. The awards will be presented at the Paths for All National Networking Event on 27 September 2012 at the Royal Concert Hall, Glasgow. The winners will be invited to receive their awards at the event.

Our Volunteers of the Year will be presented with a certificate and commemorative gift, while the winners projects will also receive £100 to spend on their volunteers.

Workplace Volunteer of the Year
Who's making a difference in your workplace? Do you have a volunteer who is taking the lead in getting colleagues more active, someone who is giving up their time to spread the message, organise walks and encourage the desk bound to walk at lunchtime?

Health Walk Volunteer of the Year
Do you know a volunteer who's been with you since the start? Someone who's led health walks week in week out, in rain, hail or sunshine? Is someone able to recruit inactive new walkers and inspire them to make changes to their lives, despite their own hardships?

Volunteer Manager of the Year
Does your Volunteer Manager or Scheme Co-ordinator make a special effort to create a vibrant project? Have they organised celebration events, training days, and social activities? Do they keep everyone motivated and involved in project developments?

Community Path Volunteer of the Year
Do you know a volunteer who is driven and determined to improve paths in their local area? Have they carried out maintenance to improve the quality of the paths? Have they developed signage or way-markers? Perhaps they have set up volunteer action days including the community.
